ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. William Daney and Mrs. W. A. Jones.

A party of McMinnville people will motor to Salem tomorrow to participate in a delightful affair for which the Daniel J. Fry, E. E. Lee Steiners, Frank Durbins and E. C. Cross will be hosts.

The affair will be given at the attractive Fry residence "Brightview" and the guests will include a colony of McMinnville families who like their hosts spend the summers at "Nesko-wia."

Dancing has been a popular diversion this winter and devotees are eagerly anticipating the final party to be given by the Booth string orchestra on June first in the armory.

The string orchestra informals have eclipsed all similar dances in merit and popularity this season and the last party promises to be a gala affair.

Among the prominent matrons who will be patronesses for the party are: Mesdames Frederic Thilensen, William Lytle, Fred Stewart, Chauncey Bishop, William Burghardt, Jr., George Rodgers, Ben Oloest, Carlton Smith and William Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Caimock motored to Portland Friday and were accompanied home by Mrs. Henry McConnell, who has just returned from an interesting trip to Honolulu. Mrs. McConnell will be a guest of the Caimocks for about a fortnight.

Perhaps the merriest and gayest of all functions during the week was the dinner dance given by the Monty Night Dancing club at the Hotel Marjorie, Monday evening. About sixty club members and their friends danced through the evening, and the dinner tables with their decorations of soft-colored flowers in yellow and pink surrounded by happy groups made a pretty ensemble.

Among those enjoying the gayeties were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Siecke, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. James Chinnock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Merlie Harding, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wendoroth, Mrs. J. P. Jones, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. Lovelace, Miss Regina Long, Miss Alice Skiff, Sylvester Doerfler, William Walton, Ralph Wilder and C. B. Rouse.

Delightful and informal with fragrant roses arranged about the rooms a number of matrons enjoyed the afternoon of sewing for which Mrs. George Bingham, Mrs. M. N. Chapman and Mrs. Lot Pierce were hostesses Wednesday.

The affair was given at the home of the former and the guests included the members of the Leisure Hour club.

A delightful mid week affair was the five hundred party for which Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Craig were hosts Thursday evening. Guests were asked to make up five tables of the game, and the card honors were awarded to Mrs. Fred Steudloff and R. E. Downing.

Those circling the tables were the members of the "Cherry City Card Club" and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. Alfred Lovelace and Dr. W. H. Byrd, who were additional players.

Mrs. Craig was assisted by her daughter, Miss Bernice Craig.

Honoring their guardian, Miss Regina Long a much feted bride-elect, the "Shonta Washola" campfire girls entertained Friday evening with a pretty supper and kitchen shower.

The affair which was a complete surprise to the honor guest was given at the home of Miss Thelma Blessing. The rooms and table were prettily adorned with roses and Miss Long was the recipient of many useful gifts.

The "Shonta Washola" campfire club includes the Misses Thelma Blessing, Helen McInturf, Mildred Reid, Esther Sun, Pauline Remington, Hazel Tucker, Ruth Cooley, Ruth Raub, Louise Miller, Meryl DuRett, Ruby Welch and Edna Hall.

Besides the honoree the club's guests included Miss Stanis Andresen and Miss Bertha Edwards, who will be guardian for the girls next season. After supper the evening was delightfully spent with music.

Another pretty affair honoring Miss Regina Long this week was the luncheon given today by Mrs. J. C. Nelson.

Covers were placed for twelve around a table prettily appointed.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher will leave next week for Iowa, where she will visit with relatives.

In celebration of the anniversary of Mrs. N. A. Balet birthday, Mrs. J. C. Schaupp and Mrs. A. J. Honck entertained at the suburban home of the former on Market street, Tuesday afternoon.

A number of guests attended the affair and the honoree was showered with charming gifts. The rooms were decorated in tribute to the honor guest with snow balls, and rhododendrons.

Mrs. W. M. Smith captured the prize in a contest and Mrs. M. E. Munding the consolation. During the afternoon Mrs. J. C. Schaupp delighted the guests with readings and Mrs. Harry Rowe and Donald Schaupp with musical selections.

Assisting the hostesses in the serving were Mrs. W. W. Faulkner and Miss Fern Schaupp. The guests were: Mrs. John Brewer, Mrs. Walter Gerth, Mrs. Ernest Blue, Mrs. Warren Polke, Mrs. Harry Rowe, Mrs. Carrie Chase, Mrs. Emma Stanford, Mrs. Bones, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. H. B. Dorke, Mrs. M. E. Munding, Mrs. B. P. Schultz, Mrs. W. W. Faulkner, Mrs. Richard C. Kriesel, Mrs. Werring and the Misses Nettie Honck, Ella Buge, Fern Schaupp, little Miss Katherine Rowe, Master Darwin Biver and Donald Schaupp.

It was an uncommon pleasure to attend Mrs. Walter Deaton's musicale at her residence studio Wednesday evening when her advanced students were heard in recital. Those who were piano soloists on that occasion were: Miss Mildred Brunk and Miss Thelma Blessing. The guests were received by Mrs. Milton Meyers and Pauline Marzuch.

A number of friends and relatives attended the recital and the girls were literally showered with beautiful flowers and gifts. Miss Brunk and Miss Blessing both displayed extraordinary ability, showing the result of thorough and painstaking work. Especially good was the interpretation and expression of Sonata Pathetique and The Last Hope by Mildred Brunk, showing that she had grasped the spirit of the composer's Thelma Blessing gave an excellent interpretation of a Mid Summer Night's Dream. She charmed and captivated her listeners with the Mazurka and La Chasse au Lion.

The four hand numbers were creditably given and greatly enjoyed. Miss Brunk and Miss Blessing deserve special credit for their splendid work and efforts, which well merited applause and appreciation.

Here is the programme: Overture—The Barber of Seville. Rosini. Mildred Brunk, Thelma Blessing. Valse Styrienne. Wollenhaupt. Mildred Brunk.

Alaska Pictures at Bligh Theatre

The land of the midnight sun where is found the most beautiful scenery in the world to be shown here Monday May 22, at the Bligh theatre in 7000 feet of film. This film was taken by Dr. Leonard S. This picture is accompanied by the "Olson Concert Orchestra" of seven pieces, five brothers and two sisters, all of one family, the best family orchestra on the Pacific coast. # The NEW EDISON Jacques Urlus

Jacques Urlus is the greatest of all Wagnerian tenors. His Siegfried and Lohengrin at the Metropolitan this season placed him incomparably above all other tenors in the interpretation of the great German roles. In this picture you see Urlus singing in direct comparison with Edison's Re-Creation of his wonderful voice to demonstrate that one is indistinguishable from the other.

The Edison now have machine and the tone. The Edison company issue new records every two weeks and these records contain the very best selected voices there can be obtained, and his list of records now is superior to all others.

The local Caanauqua reading circle enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher on Friday. The class is studying "The Ways of the Planets," and after the weekly program, Dr. E. E. Fisher read a paper on cancer showing its cause and symptoms. The Dr. prefaced his paper by saying it was just as necessary for the people, the layman, to know about cancer, its cause, symptoms, etc., as for the medical profession to know. The death rate caused by the dread disease is appalling and the time is right now when the people should be educated as to its nature. The members present were: Mrs. Chapel, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Duran, Mrs. A. E. Hunt, Mrs. Tyson, Mrs. Jasper, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Salmon, Mrs. Esch, Mrs. P. Von Eichen, Mrs. Eures.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FAIR WILL BE HELD AT STAYTON. At the Parent-Teachers' meeting in the high school auditorium Friday at 2:30 p. m., the constitution and by-laws of the Stayton Industrial School Fair, as prepared by Attorney Heltzel, were adopted as a whole. The following board of directors was elected: A. Fery, Geo. Keech, for one year; S. H. Heltzel, E. C. Downing for two years; and E. M. Olmsted for three years.

At a meeting of the board of directors the first of the week, A. Fery was chosen president; George Keech, vice-president; S. H. Heltzel, secretary; and E. M. Olmsted, treasurer. It was also decided to get out a personal letter to every family, whom it is possible to reach, inviting them to become a member of the fair. The membership fee is set at one dollar per year, and committees will be appointed to solicit for memberships. It will be no hardship for anyone to give a dollar toward the Stayton Industrial School Fair, and many people will take two or three memberships certificates or buy one for several years. The board is already planning the premium list, and a word here to the young people will not be amiss. Plant and take care of your gardens. Prepare for the fair, for there will surely be one in Stayton from three to ten days before the state fair. The list will be out as soon as possible, but don't wait, begin now.—Mail.
